Teams: 3 or 4 riders and one Stable Manager (SM). DCs/CAs must determine that members are safe to compete at chosen level, given the technical nature of show jumping courses.

Divisions: Competitors may enter Qualifying or Non-Qualifying divisions based on the horse/rider ability and DC/CA approval.

Non-Qualifying

Non-qualifying divisions are open to D-3s and up on appropriate mounts. Very strong D2 Trad/HSE on quiet, safe mounts with permission from the DC/CA may also enter. All non-qualifying level competitors will jump four numbered rounds. They will not have a jump-off or Take Your Own Line (TYOL) round.

NQ1 horse or pony 2'0" – 2'3"

NQ2* horse or pony up to 2'6"

NQ3 horse or large pony** 2'6" – 2'9"

* will jump the Introductory level course. One two stride combination, no jump off or TYOL.

** a large pony is over 13.2 hands but not larger than 14.2 hands.

Qualifying

Competitors attempting to qualify for Championships must meet the following age and certification requirements:

Division	Age (as of 1/1/2018)	Certification
Introductory	12 years or older	D-3 Trad/HSE and up
Developing Horse/Rider	12 years or older	D-3 Trad/HSE and up
Regular/Modified	12 years or older	C-1 Trad/HSE and up
Stable Manager	12 years or older	D-3 H-M and up

Qualifications for Championships:

To qualify, the same horse/rider combination must have competed over three courses at the same level at their regional or interregional qualifying show jumping rally. The horse/rider may not have been eliminated in any qualifying course for any reason (including any rule or technical infractions in the competition arena or schooling area) or have more than 12 jumping faults over the three qualifying rounds of the rally. Large ponies ridden by B- or A-certified members may compete at Horse II level, but must be able to handle distances specified for horses. In addition, members attempting to qualify in DHR, Modified (Horse I, Large Pony), or Regular (Horse II-IV) must complete a TYOL course as their fourth round; however, TYOL will not be scored or considered a qualifying round.

Qualifying Levels Offered:

Division	Height	Jump Off
Introductory	max 2'6" -one two stride combination	no jump off, no TYOL
Developing Horse/Rider	2'9" – 3'0"	3'0"
Modified Division:
Horse I/Large Pony	3'0" – 3'3"	3'6"
Regular Divisions:
Horse II	3'3" – 3'6"	3'9"
Horse III	3'6" – 3'9"	4'0"
Horse IV	3'9" – 4'0"	4'3"

VRPC ranking criteria for Championships selection are based on the competitor's scores in rounds 1-3 (jump off score not included) and their Horse Management score. TYOL (round 4) will not be scored or included in Championships selection. TYOL is offered to provide an opportunity for competitors to plan and ride a TYOL round, which is included at Championships. In the last qualifying round, the Introductory Division will include a two stride combination of two verticals which will be included at Championships.

Fees:

Entry fee $142 per VRPC competitor; $192 per out-of-region competitor. Entry fee includes stall for Friday & Saturday nights and 2 bags of shavings. Additional bags of shavings may be ordered when entering for $8 per bag; or may be purchased on grounds for $10.00 per bag. No straw bedding allowed. No fee for Stable Managers.

Out of region competitors use code OutofRegion when registering online.

Payment: Invoices and payment receipts are generated by the system and emailed to the member. Online payment may be made with a member's personal credit or debit card through the VRPC website when registering an individual.

OR

Invoices and checks may be snail mailed to the VRPC Treasurer, Steve Vorpahl (7482 Argyll Court, Warrenton, VA 20187) but must be received by the Club closing date (May 23).
